4. When the corporation receives a request in accordance with this subsection, the board shall determine whether the corporation will disclose to the requester the records that the requester has requested and shall deliver a written response to the requester that sets out an index of each record that the requester has requested and the following with respect to each such record:

 - i. Whether the corporation is required to redact the record to remove any part that the board has determined that the corporation will not disclose to the requester.
 - ii. The time that the board estimates spending on responding to the request.
6. If the board's response described in paragraph 4 does not state that the board has determined that the corporation will not disclose to the requester the records that the requester has requested and if the requester wishes to continue with the request, the requester shall return the response to the corporation indicating the records requested, together with payment of the cost estimate described in subparagraph 4 ii.
7. The corporation shall deliver a copy of the records to the requester within a reasonable time after the corporation receives the response and payment of the cost estimate described in subparagraph 4 ii.

 - iv. if the actual cost described in sub-subparagraph A of subparagraph iii is less than the payment that the corporation has received under paragraph 6 in respect of the record, payment from the corporation to the requester for the amount of the difference.
10. If the actual cost described in sub-subparagraph A of subparagraph 9 iii is more than the payment that the corporation has received under paragraph 6 in respect of the record, the requester shall pay to the corporation within a reasonable time after the corporation complies with paragraph 9 the least of,

 14. A request shall be deemed to be abandoned and it shall then have no force and effect if, within 60 days of receiving the written response described in paragraph 4 in respect of the request, the requester does not,
 - i. in accordance with paragraph 6, return the response to the corporation and make the payment required by that paragraph, or
 - ii. submit the request as a matter in dispute to one or both of mediation and arbitration for resolution.
